Anoka-Ramsey is proud to host guest lecturer Dave Larsen. Dave Larsen is currently the Interim Assistant Director of American Indian Affairs at Minnesota State University Mankato. Mr. Larsen will be lecturing about the untold truths and myths that have been told about the American Indian throughout history and in our history books. He will cover topics, such as, American Indian inventions, unfulfilled treaties, American Indian culture, local American Indian education, and the present and future successes of the American Indian community. We look forward to the educational experience. We welcome all community members to attend.
