

CHAPTER 3: Educational Services

Policy 3B.3: Adding, Changing, Dropping, or Suspending Courses

College faculty hold the critical role in curriculum development. The Academic Affairs and Standards Council is charged with developing procedures for the submission and review of all proposals to modify the curriculum. Decisions of the Academic Affairs and Standards Council shall be published in the College Bulletin on a timely basis.

History:

03.2010 Policy formerly read: "Academic divisions shall develop new courses and programs".
