

CHAPTER 5: Administration

Policy 5D.1: Auxiliary Enterprises – Bookstores

The mission of the Anoka-Ramsey Community College bookstores shall be to facilitate the sale of required and/or optional educational materials for the courses offered each semester. The secondary mission of the college bookstores is to facilitate the sale of educational aids such as school and office supplies, academically priced computer software, and appropriate leisure reading materials to encourage and benefit the literary community of the college.

The Anoka-Ramsey Community College Bookstores shall operate as an auxiliary enterprise belonging to the State of Minnesota. All assets and inventories are the property of the college. Earnings of the bookstores shall be reinvested in the college as determined by the President and Vice President.

The daily operation of the bookstores shall be the responsibility of the bookstore managers under the direction of the Director of Fiscal Services and Auxiliary Enterprises.

History: